

Table of Contents

Putting Trauma on the Radar Screen

Ann Wolbert Burgess

It Was Always There

Yael Danieli

From Veterans of War to Veterans of Terrorism: My Maps of Trauma

Charles R. Figley

Making It Up as I Went Along

Matthew J. Friedman

My Life and Work

Judith Lewis Herman

A Life In But Not Under Stress

Mardi Horowitz

Fully Primed

Lawrence C. Kolb

Psychoanalytic Approaches to Trauma: A Forty Year Retrospective

Henry Krystal

My Life and Work: Some Reflections

Robert Jay Lifton

There Is Reason in Action

Frank Ochberg

Life, Trauma & Loss

Beverley Raphael

Choices Made Promises Kept

Zahava Solomon

Memoirs of a Childhood-Trauma Hunter

Lenore Terr

Autobiographic Essay

Robert J. Ursano

The Body Keeps the Score

Bessel van der Kolk

Becoming a Psychotraumatologist

Lars Weisaeth

From Crisis Intervention to Croatia: Trauma Maps

John P. Wilson

About the Editor

Charles R. Figley, Ph.D., is President and Founder of the Green Cross Foundation and Professor at the School of Social Work at Florida State University. He is also Founder and Director of the FSU Traumatology Institute and the Founding President of the International Society for Traumatic Stress Studies (ISTSS).

"A historical goldmine from the makers of the recent history in trauma literature. The biggest names in the trauma field tell their inspirational stories in this historical gem. ... Fascinating reading – we are allowed a little glimpse into the personal and professional histories of the names we know. I couldn't put it down! It belongs on every bookshelf of every person interested in trauma and the development of the field."

-- Barbara Olasov Rothbaum, Ph.D., ABPP, Professor of Psychiatry, Emory University School of Medicine, Director, Trauma and Anxiety Recovery Program, and President, International Society of Traumatic Stress Studies (2005)