

Apalachicola - 1844 - Sept. 8-9th

Tremendous gale reported at Apalachicola on Sept. 8th. Trees, buildings, and ships were damaged. Many structures unroofed. Total damage was estimated at $20,000 and no lives were lost.

Tallahassee
The storm was mentioned in the local newspaper.

Reports of this storm's effects on Apalachicola and Tallahassee are described in Ludlum (1963). The damage appears to have been moderate, with no mention of any lives lost.

